

Resources for the Beginning Blogger

Offline:

1. Attend workshops offered at Libraries and Societies (great offerings at CGS)
2. Ask questions to those who know – the personal approach done through networking.
3. Attend Genealogy conferences (a good one...Genealogy Jamboree in Southern CA)
4. Use the Trial-and-Error approach by using the online forums. Here's one for the blogger platform: <http://www.google.com/support/forum/p/blogger?hl=en>

Online:

Resource website 1: To find other blogs to follow: <http://blogfinder.genealogue.com/>

Resource website 2: Various topics: <http://www.geneabloggers.com/blog-resources/>

Resource website 3: Blogger support: <http://buzz.blogger.com/>

Selected Genealogy blogs:

- <http://olivetreegenealogy.blogspot.com/>
- <http://genealogytipoftheday.blogspot.com/>
- <http://mountainviewpeople.blogspot.com/>
- <http://www.g4beginners.blogspot.com/>

Featured blogs (other topics):

Personal - <http://patgalant.blogspot.com/>

Area specific - <http://www.newyorkhistoryblog.com/>

General history - <http://www.ablogabouthistory.com>